Kennedy Not Eligible To Get Nobel Prize

OSLO, Norway (AP)—President John F. Kennedy probably cannot be awarded the Nobel prize posthumously because he was not nominated for it while he was alive, Director August Schou of the Norwegian Nobel Institute said today.

The Peruvian Chamber of Deputies proposed Kennedy for the prize Sunday night.

The peace prize has been awarded posthumously only once, in 1961 to U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold. He was nominated before his death.
